Currently a 1L student. The book is an excellent source for legal writing. It has sample documents in the appendices and practice exercises throughout the book. Inside the front and back pages are list of questions to ask yourself after producing a draft in order to double check that you've covered everything in your paper. It's definitely a book that I'll find useful in years to come. Also, my professor raves about this book! Never mind that this edition has a few typos in it...oops. Good purchase, especially for your legal writing class.

Excellent book - wonderfully simple and detailed in explanation of the foundation and "how-to" of legal reasoning and writing - which is unlike anything else. The book arrived sooner than expected and the quality was far better than advertised. Will most likely use this shipper again notwithstanding the "Legal Analysis: The Fundamental Skill" event.

Unfortunately we are not using Neumann's book as our text in my 1L LRW class, but I purchased it as an additional reference. I must say that I am glad that I did. This book does an excellent job of breaking down all of the elements of research, reasoning and writing and it is easy to understand.

I am not an attorney. But it helped me with writing skills by reading certain chapters. Book is mostly easy to understand in the areas that are not dealing with legalese.

This book feels like my best friend! The author knows how to communicate complex ideas and make them digestible for the untrained mind. I'm SO glad I bought it!
